

Introduction to Program Evaluation Workshop

The Nova Scotia Chapter of the Canadian Evaluation Society will offer a one-day introductory workshop on program evaluation and development of evaluation frameworks. This is a great opportunity to learn about evaluation from both the workshop presenters and others involved in evaluation.

Workshop Topics

The workshop will introduce participants to basic evaluation concepts and help them understand how and why evaluation should be conducted. Topics to be discussed include: Types of Evaluation, Program Description and Logic Model, Data Collection and Analysis, Communicating Evaluation Findings and Creating an Evaluation Culture.

Who Should Attend?

This is a beginner level workshop for anyone interested in evaluation. Whether you conduct evaluations yourself, need to contract evaluators or manage projects, this workshop will be of great interest to you.
